Samuel Smith's

Samuel Smith's Old Brewery at Tadcaster was established in 1758. It is Yorkshire's oldest brewery - and one of the few remaining independent breweries left in England. The hard crystalline brewing water is still drawn from the original well sunk over 250 years ago, and the yeast strain has remained unchanged for over 100 years. Samuel Smith ales are fermented in open-topped vessels made of slate known as "Yorkshire Squares," and local deliveries are still made by horse-drawn dray wagons.

The Samuel Smith Gift Box: Take home a British pub! Three time-tested benchmark ales; logo glass; coasters.

Available on a limited basis, the Samuel Smith's Gift Box contains three ales that define their style, inspire brewers, and bring huge satisfaction with every sip: Nut Brown Ale, Oatmeal Stout, and Taddy Porter (all in 18.7 oz. "Victorian Pint" bottles). It also contains an authentic Imperial Pint tulip glass with a metallic gold Samuel Smith logo and two "Rose of Yorkshire" coasters packed in a solid, full-colour illustrated box.

NUT BROWN ALE

Style-defining nutty, fruity, brown ale.

Dark amber-brown colour; flavors of caramel & nuttiness from small additions of dark malt. Fruity ale-yeast aroma & classic spicy hops round out this masterpiece.

A signature of northern England, brown ales are interesting and easy-drinking. Smith's Nut Brown Ale defines the style, appealing to the eye then delivering wonderfully subtle but pure flavours. (No nuts are used in the recipe - dark malts provide nuttiness.)
ABV 5.0%; OG: 1.050; IBU: 31.

OATMEAL STOUT

Classic stout with silky body from oats.

Deep, rich, malty, smooth & satisfying. Smith's Oatmeal Stout perfectly marries roast flavors with a creamy full body, all built with the brewery's signature refined elegance.

Roasted barley provides the deep brown color and notes of coffee and smoke in stout, and a judicious addition of oats balances the roasty flavors perfectly - while also providing a smooth, silky body. It's round, inviting, and the inspiration for hundreds - maybe thousands! - of other oatmeal stouts
ABV 5.0%; OG: 1.050; IBU: 32.

TADDY PORTER

Authentic porter: rich, dark, inviting.

Suggestions of coffee and chocolate in the aroma and flavour, from tangy roasted barley; dry, deeply satisfying with fruitiness in the finish. Uber-traditional!

A touch lighter-bodied and a bit paler than stouts, porters were hugely popular among British workers in the 19th century. Popularity declined in the 20th century, but has grown in recent decades, in part due to Taddy Porter. "Taddy" is a diminutive for the village of Tadcaster where Sam Smith's is located.
